

MARCH, 2018

"The real voyage of discovery consists not in seeking new landscapes, but in having new eyes."
Marcel Proust

March has three events to provide opportunities to see "with new eyes". The Open Show take-in is March 1st followed by the evening Reception on March 5th at the Deicke Auditorium. The PAG paint-ins continue on March 19th and will be led by Melinda Schwartz.

Jorge Leon will definitely provide excitement using alcohol inks, acrylics or watercolor and a Hypo-200 "Oiler-Boiler". His workshop "Let There be Yupo" will be at the Jim Ward Community Center on March 8 & 9. Please click on link for information on Jorge's semi abstract workshop.

Paint-ins

Thank you to Karen Fletcher Braverman for leading the January and February paint-ins. Her collage making and application techniques resulted in some amazing mixed media paintings.

March 19 paint-in will be led by Melinda Schwartz and a notice will be sent soon regarding her project and supplies.

The summer paint-ins will once again be held at the Flamingo Gardens. The dates are available on the PAG website/calendar.

Open Show Reception Raffle

"Tropical Reef" by Effie Lewis 11 x 30 print

Thank you to Effie for once again making a generous donation of her art to fund raising for PAG's Scholarship Fund.

The print will be raffled at the March 5th reception.

Plein Aire Meet-ups

PAG Plein Aire Meet-ups continue. If you are interested in participating, please contact Julia Stevens at jstart@aol.com.

Woman of the Year

PAG is pleased to announce that Judi Wallack has been chosen as PAG's Woman of the year. Her continued dedication to PAG and exceptional work on the Scholarship Committee deserves this special recognition. PAG will have a table at the GFWC Plantation luncheon and invite members to join in this amazing recognition of women. Contact Sandy Griffin to confirm your reservation.
